

The Ottawa Community Coalition for Literacy
Invites you to attend:

A Roundtable Discussion on Integrating Essential Skills
AND
The Workshop “Through the Worker’s Eyes”

Essential Skills Roundtable

Helen Mildon, ACElinks instructor, will start an hour-long discussion at 11:00 am on integrating Essential Skills into key documents such as training plans. Join the discussion and share your great ideas.

Through the Worker’s Eyes

Developing Authentic Learning Activities

This workshop will look at tools, tips and strategies to help you develop learning activities for learners who have employment goals. Learn how to collect and use authentic materials and develop learning activities based on different complexity levels in the Essential Skills areas of Reading Text and Document Use.

Date: March 24, 2010
Location: The Gallery
Heartwood House
153 Chapel Street
Time: 11:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.
Cost: $10.00 – lunch included!

Facilitator

Chris Harwood

Through the Worker’s Eyes

Chris has extensive knowledge as an adult literacy consultant. Her experience includes: teaching adult literacy learners; developing curriculum, creating resources; project research and promoting the use of clear writing. She has coordinated, developed and delivered training sessions and workshops to managers, teachers, literacy professionals and learners, locally, provincially and nationally.

Registration Information

Contact Maureen at 613-233-3232
or by email:
maureenmcgovern@occl.ca

Registration Deadline:
March 17, 2010